The Good News Center – The ideal spot for your next meeting or conference.

Work in a Peaceful Setting

The Good News Center is the perfect spot for meetings, conferences and training sessions. From our beautiful grounds to our large, functional facility, we combine work with rejuvenation and relaxation.

Spend time in nature, on our breathtaking grounds and trails, whether for a group activity or personal reflection.

"Trainers from our agency were looking for a workshop site that would be restful and more quiet than a hotel conference center. We found that at The Good News Center."

- Suzanne Hinge,
The Neighborhood Center Inc.

Many Options Available

Whether you're planning your business strategy for the future, training staff, or taking a break to rejuvenate, we'll work with you to make sure your time here is a success.

Conference rooms and dining rooms of varying sizes are available, as well as onsite audio visual services. We can provide catered meals to fit your every need, whether it's a continental breakfast or buffet dinner. There's even a dining room that opens to our large lawn for barbecues.

"The Good News Center has been nothing but accommodating and helpful. All of the staff are so friendly and the environment is serene. We look forward to our meetings there."

- Jane Kuchenbacher,
St. Elizabeth Medical Center

Overnight Accommodations

Enjoy the convenience of our guest rooms for an extended stay. The Good News Center welcomes groups of 10 to 42 for overnight stays in our comfortable rooms. Most of the rooms have private baths, while others offer a shared bath.

Whether you are from out of town, or just need to get away, The Good News Center will make your stay memorable.
